Randstad N.V., the global leader in the HR services industry, is today hosting its Analyst Seminar in London. Senior management will provide an update on the progress and results of digital initiatives and differentiating long-term strategy, and on how Randstad aims to secure competitive and profitable organic sales growth. By capitalizing on its diversified portfolio and leading geographical presence, the company is in an excellent position to deliver resilient free cash flow and attractive shareholder returns.

In particular, Randstad sees major growth opportunities in the Enterprise segment, supporting large multinational accounts in their total talent journey. These clients will benefit from Randstad’s increasing and unique access to relevant data and local labor market knowledge. At the same time, Randstad provides its talents with increasingly data-driven support throughout their working lives. This is captured in the Human Forward promises, which will fuel the Randstad brand on the journey towards its ultimate goal: to touch the work lives of 500 million people worldwide by 2030.

financial highlights analyst seminar:
- Ambition to gain further market share, driven by our digital initiatives and differentiating long-term strategy.
- We are creating capacity for competitive and profitable growth, by identifying € 120 million cost savings by 2021. This primarily relates to productivity gains and general benchmarking; to be selectively invested in strategic initiatives.
- Trading conditions in October and November are broadly in line with Q3 2019.
- We maintain our ambition to protect our EBITA margin YoY for FY 2019.
- We project a pre-IFRS 16 leverage ratio of around 0.7 for 2019, driven by our strong FY 2019 FCF outlook. We reiterate our capital allocation policy.
